

on media consolidation -- could we please have rules that serve the public, rather than private, interest. Stories are not being told already - the public needs to chew fact not mouth pablum. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.